

Gallucci String Studio news
April 2007

Reminders:

Studio fees are due beginning Monday, April 2. Thank you for paying on time.

Spring recitals are approaching! See below.

BSO "Strings Attached" lecture recital by Laura Gallucci and students
Crossover: the history of the violin and viola from historic to modern times
Bangor Public Library
Thursday, April 5, 6:30-8pm
Free

I have been asked to give a lecture recital to help promote a new piece of music the country band the Kruger Brothers has written for the BSO. Students from the studio will help demonstrate through performance, the wide variety of music that has been and is now played on the violin / viola. Two students will premier brand new compositions. Please attend this interesting and informative lecture!

Spring recitals:

Saturday, April 28, 9-12noon, Bangor Public Library
Friday, May 18, place TBA, fiddle recital, 7-8pm
Saturday, May 19, 9am-12noon, Bangor Public Library

Students will be invited to participate in one of three recitals listed above. Recitals have been organized with specific student needs in mind. If you cannot attend the recital date assigned your child, please let me know asap. Pieces for all recitals are being assigned this week.
