

Gallucci String Studio news June 2008

End of Year Summary: This month ends a very successful year for Gallucci String Studio. Look at these statistics:

- Over sixty students took regular lessons this year.
- Fifty students participated in recitals in the fall and spring.
- More students than ever performed their musical pieces from memory, and with piano.
- Each recital featured student accompanists from the local area.
- Ten students participated in the Bangor Symphony Youth Orchestra.
- Twenty-eight students participated in musical groups in school.
- Three students auditioned for Allstate.
- One student was accepted to All-state and received first chair viola.
- One student won second place in a fiddle competition.
- The sibling of one student wrote an original string quartet and four students premiered it.

Thank you to the students for working hard and making it such a successful year!
Thank you to the parents for providing the necessary support for the success!

End of School Year Reminders: Studio fees:

Students taking lessons through the end of Spring Semester (June 13) will owe a HALF month payment.

Students taking through the end of June (ending June 27) owe a regular monthly payment.

Students who are taking three lessons will owe a pro-rated payment, so please contact me for a price.

All fees are due beginning Monday, June 2. Thank you for paying on time.

Make up lesson options end with the last paid lesson in June.

Summer is here and the studio is warm, sometimes down right hot! Please have students dress comfortably and bring water to drink so no one overheats.
